EASLEY APPOINTS WEBB TO BOXING ADVISORY COMMISSION

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley appointed Woody Webb of Chapel Hill to the North Carolina Boxing Advisory Commission.

Webb is a partner and attorney at Edmisten & Webb. He serves on the Lineberger Cancer Center and the University of North Carolina Children's Hospital boards of visitors. He received his Bachelor's degree from Stanford University and graduated from the UNC School of Law.

The Boxing Advisory Commission protects the safety and well-being of participants in boxing and promotes public confidence and trust in the regulatory process and the conduct of boxing. The commission has eight members, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints one member. The lieutenant governor, secretary of the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety and the Tribal Council each appoint one member. The Senate President Pro Tempore and Speaker of the House each appoint two members.
